STRANGER THINGS HAPPEN

than imagination can accomplish. Suppose any one should warn a man not to stop and watch boys playing ball, because, if he did, a wild ball might come his way and he might stop to pick it up, and stooping might discharge a pistol and kill himself. All this did happen, and we paid the claim because he was insured. Was it luck that he happened to be insured, or was it good judgment? Any way it was good insurance. 55th year, doing business in 38 states.

The National Life Insurance Company of Vermont (Mutual). ORGANIZED in 1850. S. S. Ballard, General Agent, N.B. Ballard, Local Agent, Rooms 2 and 3, Miles' Block, Barre, Vt.

There will be a regular meeting of the Altar society Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in the vestry. All members are requested to be present as the election of officers will be in order.

GRANITEVILLE.

For sale—ten building lots in Graniteville, best location, on easy terms. Enquire of A. A. Smith, Barre, Vt.

For Sale—Piece of property that will pay 16 per cent interest, having been placed in my hands by party who is going West. A. A. Smith.

A special meeting of Branch No. 12, Quarry Workers International Union of North America, will be held in Miles' Hall, Graniteville, Sept. 28, to see what action the members will take in regard to the Barre Emergency Hospital. A full attendance is requested. Meeting will be opened at 7:30.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

A Kansas man claims to have a swarm of bees that made 20 pounds of honey in three days.

The New York World says that the army of school children in its city is larger by 100,000 than the armies which fought at Lao Yang.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, colored people who live in Georgia, have recently celebrated the 90th anniversary of their wedding. They are supposed to have been married longer than any other people in the United States.

There is a big Maltese cat in the railroad shops at Indianapolis which is the pet of all the railroad men in that city. She is said to have killed 10,000 rats and mice in her time, but now she has adopted a family of four baby mice and is carefully bringing them up.

A man in England was drinking a glass of beer this summer when a wasp fell into it. The man swallowed the wasp by mistake and it stung his throat. He died as a result of the sting. The moral is that one should be careful what he swallows, especially such a story as this.

A Cleveland man has started a business which promises to be a great success. He has hired an office, a large number of expert stenographers, and a number of telephones. Business men call him up by telephone, dictate their letters over the wire to a stenographer, and the letters are later sent back by messenger boys to be signed.

ARCHBISHOP IN WASHINGTON.

English Primate and His Party Entertained at the White House.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The programme for the entertainment of the archbishop of Canterbury included a dinner at the White House given by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, the state dining room being used for the occasion. Covers were laid for twenty-eight. The decorations were pink and white carnations. Throughout the evening a number of selections were rendered by the United States Marine band, stationed in the main corridor. Seated at the table were the following:

The president, Mrs. Roosevelt, the British ambassador, the archbishop of Canterbury, Mrs. Davidson, the postmaster general, Mrs. Payne, the secretary of the interior, Mrs. Hitchcock, the admiral of the navy, Lieutenant General Chaffee, Mrs. Chaffee, the bishop of Albany, Mrs. Doane, Revs. J. H. Ellison and Hyls Holden, who accompanied the archbishop to America; Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith, pastor of St. John's church; Mrs. Smith, Mr. Silas McBee of the Churchman, Mrs. McFee, Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard, Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, whose guest his grace is during his stay in America and who accompanied him to Washington; Mrs. J. West Roosevelt, Mrs. Clifford Richardson of New York, Miss Satterlee, Miss Glover, Miss Hagner and Mr. Joseph Wilmer of New York.

No Truth in Port Arthur Rumor.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 26.—There is no truth in the story published by the Matin of Paris to the effect that telegrams to the emperor announced that the Japanese were now engaged in a general assault on Port Arthur and that the whole of Admiral Togo's and Vice Admiral Kamimura's squadrons were aiding in the struggle, which, it was further asserted it was feared here, would be final.

British Steamer Taken by Japanese. San Francisco, Sept. 26.—The Merchants' Exchange has received a cable message from London stating that the British steamer Crusader, bound from Oregon ports for the far east, has been captured by the Japanese and taken to Hakodate.

Boston School Burned.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Eight persons were slightly injured and a property loss of about $125,000 was caused at a fire which practically destroyed the building used for St. Augustine's parochial school in South Boston. The loss is partly covered by insurance. No pupils were in the schoolhouse at the time. Those injured were foremen and spectators, who were more or less cut and bruised either by falls from ladders or by being struck by falling debris.

Judge Herrick's Plans.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Justice D. Cady Herrick will open campaign headquarters in this city, but will not occupy them until after he has retired from the bench, which will be after he has disposed of the legal business pending before him. He held his last special term. At his request Justice Howard has been designated to succeed him in conducting the general term.

Negro Brute Lynched.

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 26.—A special to the Chronicle from Greenwood, S. C., says that a crowd of Laurens citizens brought into Greenwood county a young negro named James Stuart and lynched him. Stuart had attempted assault on the fourteen-year-old daughter of Doc Hughes, a white farmer.

Suspected of Murder, Kills Himself. Dover, N. H., Sept. 26.—The body of William R. Brown of Northwood, for whom the police were searching as the suspected murderer of William Jenkins, was found on an unfrequented road about a mile from the man's home. He had committed suicide by shooting with a revolver.

Hooked to Death by a Cow. Penn Yan, N. Y., Sept. 26.—John Halpin, eleven years old, son of James Halpin, was hooked to death in the street here by a cow. The animal, which was tied behind a wagon, broke her tether and attacked the boy, who was dressed in a red sweater. One horn penetrated his skull, causing almost instant death.

Notice to All Union Men. That the Congregational Church and the Baker house at Williamstown are non-union obs.

SEARCHING FOR IT?

Some Barre Citizens Can Tell You Where It's Found

If you have any itching of the skin, Irritating Eczema, Itching Piles. You're looking for relief. Searching for a cure. Barre people have found a cure for itching skin diseases.

They tell about it. Read what this citizen says.

F. S. Sandler (farmer) of West Topsham, says: "I was subject to itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, for a number of years despite the use of innumerable salves and ointments brought to my notice by friends and acquaintances and through the Barre newspapers and other sources of information. The malady, disease or complaint, term it what you will, was often had enough in the winter, but in hot weather the itching and annoyance was unendurable. I heard of Doan's Ointment and got a box at E. A. Drown's drug store in Barre. When it effectually stopped such an old and chronic case as mine, which had resisted every effort on my part to check it, let alone cure, I have often wondered what this remedy would do in the incipient stages of that far too common annoyance, piles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Fire in Providence.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 26.—Fire broke out at the Darling box factory in the north end destroyed the factory and the contents of the Harris lumber yard adjoining and damaged the Silver Springs bleachery and a small portion of the Corliss Engine company's plant. The loss is about $75,000. The flames spread threateningly and were not checked until practically all of the city's fire fighting apparatus had been brought into play.

Anthrax in Pennsylvania.

Reading, Pa., Sept. 26.—Investigation by the state live stock sanitary board shows that virulent anthrax exists among the cattle in the northern end of Berks county. Many animals have died. Before anthrax was discovered Texas fever was prevalent, and in consequence a number of roads and farms have been quarantined.

Women Brewers.

In the thirteenth century all the brewers and bakers were women. When men began to take up these trades, they were known as "men brewers" and "men bakers."

Notice, Granite Cutters.

As I am not able to be around with handles, you will find them at James Ahern's and Prindle & Averill's. M. Cook.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM H. EASTMAN.

STATE OF VERMONT. In Probate Court, District of Washington, ss. held in Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 26th day of September, A. D. 1904.

Wilbur E. Shepard, administrator of the estate of William H. Eastman, late of the City of Barre, in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. Whereupon it is ordered by said Court that said account and said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office, in said Montpelier, on the 14th day of October, A. D. 1904, for hearing and decision thereon; And, it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at the City of Barre, in this State, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have, why said account should not be allowed and such decree made.

By the Court. AUGUSTUS CARLETON, Judge.

Tues. Sept. 27, Oct. 4-11.
